Britain Considers
Bld U.S. Plan To Provide New Homes

U.S. Ambassador To Britain, Joseph Kennedy, Is Believed Author Of Scheme.

LONDON, Nov. 15. — The British government today gave urgent consideration to a bold scheme under which the United States and the British Empire would find homes for thousands of German Jews seeking refuge from violence and restrictive laws in Germany.

The United States ambassador to Great Britain, Joseph Kennedy, is believed to be the author of the plan.

It was understood on the highest official level that the plan was a joint venture of the British Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax, and the U.S. ambassador, who is believed to be the author of the plan.

IMMEDIATELY CONCERNED
Mr. Kennedy spent last week-end with Mr. MacDonald, secretary for the dominions and colonies, who is immediately concerned with the problem in Palestine and the general refugee situation.

Yesterday Mr. Kennedy also saw Sir Horace Wilson, the close adviser who accompanied Mr. Chamberlain on his historic visit to Germany to confer with Chancellor Hitler.

INFLUENCING GOVERNMENT
The government circles in London are believed to be influenced by the U.S. ambassador who is influencing the British government toward taking the lead in dealing with the plight of the Jews.

The "Kennedy plan" was understood to be a joint venture of the British Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax, and the U.S. ambassador, who is believed to be the author of the plan.

Every major nation will be asked to take as many Jews as possible in an effort to move most of the Jews out of Germany.

A conference may be called to discuss the problem in the light of the "Kennedy plan" and the U.S. ambassador, who is believed to be the author of the plan.

Report Says Cabinet Won't
Take Action On Boxing
Day Issue

There will be no extra holiday this year by reason of Boxing Day and the Christmas holiday falling on the same date, December 26, according to the provincial government.

Christmas Day falls on Sunday and the holiday to celebrate the occasion, according to the statute, falls on the following day, December 26.

The day after Christmas is also a holiday in the province.

The question before this year's cabinet was whether, with the Christmas holiday being put over from December 25 to December 26, the Boxing Day holiday would be advanced from December 26 to December 27.

The matter was taken up by the provincial cabinet and it was decided to keep Boxing Day on its present date, December 26.

Therefore, no special proclamation will be made to observe Boxing Day on December 27. It will be celebrated along with Christmas on December 26.

LIBERAL SPEAKS OUT
With no Liberals in the field in London, where on the advice of Prime Minister Mackenzie King the party did not oppose Dr. Manion, the Conservative leader finally emerged with a majority of 249 votes over his C.C.F. opponent, E. O. Hall, who polled 8,206. The seat was held by the Conservative since 1921.

In Waterloo South, where the Liberals had been beaten since 1921, Karl K. Hornum won by a vote of 10,000 to 8,000.

Speech From The Throne

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly:

In opening this Seventh Session of the Eighth Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta, I desire to express gratitude and thankfulness to Almighty God that the war crisis which overshadowed the Empire during the past few months has been allayed, and I hope effectively removed.

The proposed visit of Their Majesties, King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, to the Dominion of Canada during the summer of 1939, has been received by our people with sincere feelings of joyful anticipation, of patriotic fervor, and of loyal appreciation of the gracious honor which is to be conferred upon our country. We trust that Their Majesties will graciously consent to visit our fair province.

It is with regret that we note the death of another Member of the Legislature. Since the last Session of the House, Mr. C. C. Ross, the Member from Athabasca, who had been ill for some time, passed away. I should like to express sympathy toward the relatives and friends of the deceased.

As this is a Special Session, the main legislation which will be presented for your consideration will deal with the Oil and Gas Conservation in the province. The House approved by the Government under the Conservation Act, passed at the last Session of the Legislature has a recommendation to make which will require your definite attention.

Besides this, a few important and necessary amendments to various Acts, for the improvement of their administration will be submitted to you.

I welcome you, therefore, to the business of this Special Session, and I trust that the results of your deliberations and activities may be of much benefit to our people.

I leave you now to the business of the Session, praying that Divine Providence will guide and direct your work.

Edmonton, November 15, 1938.

Tory Members Condemn Weak British Policy

PIROW HITS GERMAN PACT IS DESIRABLE

Chamberlain Party Backers Oppose Giving In To Hitler

LONDON, Nov. 15.—A meeting of the "Conservative Private Members Committee" in the House of Commons was declared in favour of the government's policy of "firmness" in regard to the German pact, the Associated Press reported.

At the same time, the Associated Press said, a speech by Oswald Prewer, defence minister of South Africa, intimating he might favour a settlement to gain "peace at any reasonable price" was received as an indication Prime Minister Chamberlain's efforts to reach a general settlement with Germany's anti-Semitic policy.

SYMPATHY FOR JEWS

The statement by Mr. Prewer, who is leading out Great Britain, Germany, Portugal and Belgium on the subject of Germany's demands for return of her pre-war colonies, came after Mr. Chamberlain spoke in the House of Commons.

The Prime Minister declared Britain had "deep sympathy" for Jews in Germany and had issued a strong protest against Nazi press attacks on some British political figures.

He left unadvised direct questions as to whether recent happenings in Germany had been a factor in moulding a solid understanding with Germany.

Anthony Eden, former foreign secretary who resigned rather than go along with Chamberlain's policy last February, in a speech at Oxford, urged an all-party government, referred to as "a coalition," to show awareness or brutality on some part of the German surface.

He also urged every day and warned that danger signs are up and plain for all to see.

PRaises Chamberlain

Mr. Prewer, whose government has been in office since the German election of South Africa, praised Mr. Chamberlain's appearance in the House of Commons and the steps taken so far should be followed up in the hope they may lead to a permanent basis for world peace.

"We also feel, however, that it must be a peace on just terms, but a peace at a reasonable price."

He then referred to the transfer of the Sudetenland, which he said was a settlement might involve—and he gave the hint of a move to demand a "united national policy" to expedite rearmament and better conditions of peace.

DEMAND MORE DEFENCE

Eden's speech 33 Conservatives, including all those identified with his views, gave the hint of a move to demand a "united national policy" to expedite rearmament and better conditions of peace.

The move was interpreted in many quarters as a possible step toward rallying under Mr. Eden all Conservative, Liberal and Labour elements opposed to Mr. Chamberlain's policy.

Labor Minister Ernest Brown, who is in the House of Commons, said he was "opposed to the idea."

He said the former foreign secretary had been "too far" in his demand that Britain virtually a totalitarian state, even if it would be "better and safer."

Carrying Out The Open Door Policy

JAPAN WILL MAKE REPLY TO PROTESTS

TOYOKE, Nov. 15.—Dome (Japanese News Agency) said today Japan would reply Friday to the United States protest against Japanese demands for revision of "understandings" respecting China made in 1911.

The reference was believed to mean the 1921 nine-power pact which the signatories, including Great Britain, United States and Japan, pledged respect for China's territorial integrity and the principle of the "open door."

I need scarcely say that this expression of confidence on the part of the electorate is deeply gratifying to me and my colleagues and to members of the party throughout Canada.

The election of Mr. J. E. Matthews, as member for Brandon, marks the second contest, within the past year, in which a government supporter has been successful in a constituency which in the general election of 1932, returned a Conservative candidate.

As in Victoria, where the present Liberal member, Mr. Mayhew, won the seat, which he held in 1928, the government's endeavor to further the extension of suffrage by other countries was one of the outstanding issues of the campaign.

Need For Alkaline Diet To Clear The System

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX

A clean conscience is not enough. You need a clean system, and an alkaline diet now and then. One day taken out for simple food, all the alkaline, will put you quickly back into everyday life. This is how it works.

Begin with a breakfast of eight ounces of orange or grapefruit juice, 10 slices toast and 1 small square butter, 1 glass skim milk, 1 cup of tea or coffee, 1 cup of water without coffee, but the day of starvation won't ruin your life. Quite the contrary.

Lunchtime is a lot better on the quantity side, but still better on the purpose of ridding your system of all bad effects. Have a special salad bowl with good French dressing made with lemon, 1 square butter, baked apple with light cream.

Dinner isn't exactly a feast, but it gives you a clean conscience, which you need. It consists of cream of spinach soup, a small baked potato, a helping of butter beans, sliced buttered bread, 1 slice toast and 1 square butter, and a cup of tea or coffee.

Supper is a light affair, but it gives you a clean conscience, which you need. It consists of cream of spinach soup, a small baked potato, a helping of butter beans, sliced buttered bread, 1 slice toast and 1 square butter, and a cup of tea or coffee.

Man Jailed Charged With Killing Girl In Case That Nearly Hung Churchman

MONTREAL, Nov. 15.—Reopening an eight-year-old slaying mystery, provincial police last night jailed Antonio Godon, 28, on a charge of murdering Simone Caron, seven, whose mutilated body was found in a burial bag in the cellar of Kamouraska Academy at nearby Pointe-Aux-Trembles in 1930.

A star prosecution witness when the case was reopened, Godon was arrested suddenly and secretly on Quebec city early on the weekend in a startling episode at a provincial police investigation generally believed dropped after acquittal of the other man.

Rev. Brother Deslauriers, who lived at the academy, once was sentenced to hang after being convicted of killing the girl.

The brother, whose baptismal name was Albert Nogue, gained a new trial and won acquittal. The man now held, at the time employed in the academy as a kitchen helper, testified at both trials for the crown.

Police refused to reveal circumstances of his arrest, and though he was taken into custody Saturday, they kept the fact secret until he was brought to the cells at provincial police headquarters here last night.

Police was arrested on a warrant issued last Wednesday by Justice Maurice Dupré here.

On Sept. 15, 1938, two brothers of the Kamouraska academy discovered the girl's body in a burial sack stuffed into a cupboard. Later, evidence showed the girl had been criminally assaulted, and many of her bones broken.

The academy was only three blocks from where the girl was seen on July 19 of the same year, and far from her home in Pointe-Aux-Trembles. The girl, father, a foreman at the academy, feared she had been kidnapped.

A few days after disappearance of the body, Brother Deslauriers was arrested. After two trials, he was believed to have returned to Quebec, his hometown. Whether he would be brought back as a witness in view of the reopening of the case, police officers refused to say last night.

C.I.O. WORKERS CHEER APPEAL OF PRESIDENT

F.D.R. Urges Uniting of Two National Labor actions

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 15.—The fits last night summoned its peace committee into consultation in wake of President Roosevelt's renewed plea for peace and unity within labor's ranks.

Seeking an end to the three-year warfare between the C.I.O. and American Federation of Labor, Mr. Roosevelt in a letter called for the first C.I.O. constitutional convention to leave open "every possible door to peace and progress in the affairs of organized labor in the United States."

Chairman John L. Lewis of the C.I.O. said the letter would be given "the most careful consideration." "One high official of the C.I.O. who refused to be quoted, said the letter would be given the most careful consideration."

WESTERN YOUTHS PROVE FARMING ABILITY IN EAST

TORONTO, Nov. 15.—Western Canadian youths are in a class by themselves when it comes to farming. Just to prove it, three Manitoba teams and another from British Columbia won Monday four of the six Dominion finals in the junior farm judging championships in conjunction with the Royal Winter Fair. Quebec won the other two.

Manitoba teams, competing against representatives of each of the provinces, won the beef, beef cattle, poultry and seed grain projects. British Columbia took the seed potato event and Quebec the dairy cattle and lamb projects.

Manitoba, boys and girls farm clubs, were under direction of the Canadian council on boys and girls club work.

William Ebb and Douglas Gillingham of Vancouver, B.C., representing the Richmond potato club won the seed potato project event with 1,000 points.

Medical History Made As Pig's Tail Removed From Milwaukee Man's Lung

United Press, Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin
MADISON, Wis., Nov. 15.—An unprecedented operation, removal of a pig's tail—yes, a pig's tail—from a human lung, by Dr. W. M. Nesbitt, of the nation's foremost bronchologists, was reported Monday.

Alvin Jankovic, middle-aged Milwaukee tavern keeper, came to Wisconsin general hospital on condition day to complain about a disfiguring tumor which had coughed.

He remembered eating a meal of sauerkraut and pig's tails early in September. Shortly afterward the cough developed. He went to several Milwaukee physicians. X-ray examinations revealed nothing. The coughing continued.

Dr. Nesbitt ordered another X-ray examination. Although these tests showed nothing conclusive, a cloudy picture in the left lung led the physician to believe there might be a foreign object there. He decided to take into Jankovic's lung.

On Nov. 11 bronchoscopes, which resemble a tube and have a tiny opening at the end, were used to locate and snare a small light at the end was selected by the physician. He decided to use a snare instrument with a foreign, a tiny device.

The patient was placed under local anesthetic. It was only a matter of seconds before Dr. Nesbitt noticed the pig's tail—actually one vertebra of the tail about one and one-half inches long and one-half inch wide. It had begun to infect the lung. Dr. Nesbitt removed the bone from the wall of the lung with his forceps and snipped it off.

The operation took about four minutes. If the bone had not been dislodged, it might have proved fatal.

After a day at rest in the hospital, Jankovic was home. He would be well and his sauerkraut straight from now on.
